

Solar Energy Society of Ireland

Your company/institute is invited to join The Solar Energy Society of Ireland

The Solar Energy Society of Ireland was first founded in May 1976, but was declared inactive in 1996. Due to renewed interest in the renewable energy area, the society was re-established in 2006. Currently, we are building our membership profile and our website is under construction (www.irishsolar.com). We hope you are interested in joining us!

Why Join SESI as a corporate member?

Corporate membership includes
2 International (ISES) members and 5 SESI members

Benefits include:

- Company logo & active link to feature on upcoming SESI website
 - Company Listing on online Members Directory
- Subscription to International Refocus magazine (6 issues)
- Electronic ISES (6 issues) & SESI newsletters (4 issues)
- Invitations to SESI seminars (academic, industrial & professional series)
 - Facility to circulate to SESI members via secretary

Cost of membership €200. For payment instructions see membership form attached
